

---

SYLLABUS: Pancasila

---

Date/ Revision	19/01/17//28/06/17
Faculty	University Mandatory Subjects
Approval	Dean of Engineering Faculty/PP

---

1. Identification of Subject:

Name of Subject	: Pancasila
Code of Subject	: U-06-PANC-2100-Pancasila-1.docx
SKS	2
Semester	: 6
Study Program	: University Mandatory Subjects
Lecturer	: Aryaning Arya Kresna

2. Competency

After finished the course, students are expected to:

1. Able to explain cognitively values of Pancasila as a guidance for everyday life's as a citizen.
2. Able to demonstrate critical and analytical thinking and abstracting alternative solution for issues and phenomena on socio-politics, and economy based upon Pancasila values.
3. Able to do a field research on any implementation of government policy and/or socio-political phenomena and writing a scientific final report on the research.
4. Able to presenting the research's result in class effectively

3. Description of Subject:

This class intended to teach students to comprehend the values of Pancasila. It will be started with discussing on the history of Pancasila, in order to give a rather wholly understanding on the purpose of making Pancasila as a concept. The next step is about the means of Pancasila to Indonesia. From that point, the subject will be trying to analyze the concept of Pancasila through philosophical point of view. This point of view will be the basic core on Pancasila as an ideology which will be compared to Liberalism, Capitalism, Socialism, Communism and Welfare State. This ideology will be the new paradigm on political ethics tool to measure the government policy and state's rules. The last subject will be how Pancasila values can be use as a new understanding on scientific research and the future of science.

4. Learning Approach

Approach	: Combination of Expository - inquiry and colaborative
Method	: Discussion, question answer, sample problem, group work
Student Task	: Presentation,
Media	: LCD projector, film.

5. Evaluation

- a) Absence maximum : 25% of 14 meetings
 b) Group and/or individual presentations : 20%
 c) Quizzes : 20% (4% x 5 quiz)
 d) Final test and project report : 60%

6. Contents/ Topics of Lecturing:

TM	Topics	Content	Remark
1	Introduction	Explaining syllabus Course Requirement Rules and sanctions Groups assembly
2,3,	The history of Pancasila	The history of Indonesia The search for nutmeg and Dutch Colonial Global Politics and its impact on Indonesia Nation-state Final concept of Pancasila	Research and/or Project Proposal
4,5	Pancasila as state's fundamental norm	Pancasila and the Constitution's of Indonesia (UUD 45) The triangle of power Pancasila and the State Pancasila and Democracy	1st Group Presentation
			Quiz
6,7	Pancasila as a philosophy	What is philosophy Methods in philosophy Pancasila as philosophy system Philosophy in every sila in Pancasila	2nd Group presentation
			Quiz
8	Silent week
9,10	Pancasila as Ideology	What is ideology Liberalism and capitalism Socialism and Communism Pancasila as an open ideology	3rd Group presentation
			Quiz
11,12	Pancasila as ethics	What is ethics? Values of Pancasila Pancasila as political ethics of Indonesia Government policy State's rules	4th Group Presentations
			Quiz
13,14	Pancasila as a new paradigm in science and technology	What is science Science and humanstic values Pancasila as a science's atmosphere in Indonesia	5th Group Presentation
			Quiz
15	Review
16	Final Test	Essay + project and/or research report

7. Book Reference:

- Aryaning A.K. et.al 2016. Etika, Ideologi dan Identitas Nasional, Ladang Kata, Jogjakarta